Title of Book: Novem Testameutum Grace

Publication Date: 1814

Condition: The binding is sound but rubbed along outer gutters.

Provenance: Poulin Antiques & Auctions

Description: 12mo in elaborate full gold tooled in embossed leather including inner dentalles and calendered end papers. The book (in Greek) is of the New Testament and was published in 1814. The binding is sound but rubbed along outer gutters. This is a detailed and highly accomplished painting. Est. $250-300.

Fore-edge Painting: Scene of a river and looking over a bridge to a small cityscape with a likely orthodox church its central feature. Pilgrims and passersby are seen walking over the bridge.
